"NC 9887 6694. Peas Cairn (site of)." (1)

"A very large mound, described as a 'Pict's House', which was removed about 1832 when small sea shells and round stones resembling small cannon balls 'were found in abundance lying on the floor of the building'. The name 'Peas Cairn' came from the wild peas which grew on the mound." (2) (3)

"Anderson classifies it as a broch." (OSFI:DT:20.7.1964)

"The site has been obliterated by the Dounreay Atomic Establishment." (OSFI:WDJ:5.6.1960)

"No change to the previous field report." (OSFI:JB:7.9.1981)
