52 TEXT

"ND 2724 3811. Broch (remains of)." (1)

"The site of a 'Tulloch' or 'Pict's House' which has been removed, leaving only a few of the foundation stones." (2)

"Little remains of this broch apart from a few large facing stones protruding through the turf on its E and W sides. A short stretch of scarping 1.0m high to the SW indicates the former presence of a berm. The whole site has been mutilated by ploughing and later building, the remains of which are visible immediately to the N and W as vague rectangular foundations."
