

The Clan Gunn Heritage Centre was established by the Clan Gunn Heritage Trust in 1985 in the 18th Century Old Parish Church of Latheron.

The remains of Castle Gunn, the original seat of the chiefs of the Clan, and of Halberry Castle, the later stronghold, are situated on the Caithness coast seven miles north of the Heritage Centre. Neil Gunn's "Highland River", which was the basis for a number of his works, is at Dunbeath, four miles south.

The Centre has a Clan Shop and is the base of the Clan Gunn Society, which maintains the traditions of the Clan throughout the world. There are also Clan Gunn Societies of North America, Nova Scotia and New Zealand open to members of Clan Gunn and its septs.

Among the 77 septs traditionally associated with the Gunns are the Hendersons, Johnsons, MacWilliams, Mansons, Robsons, Robinsons, Thomsons, Williamsons, Wilsons and Wyllies. Is your family name related to our clan? Why not come along to the Clan Gunn Heritage Centre and find out?

The Clan Gunn Heritage Centre, on the A99 to Wick and John O'Groats, 200 metres north of the intersection with the A9 to Thurso, is 1 1/2 hours drive from Inverness.

The Centre is open from 1st June to 30th September, Mondays to Saturdays – 11.00am to 5.00pm and on Sundays in July and August from 2.00pm to 5.00pm. Admission £1.50 for adults and 75p for children, senior citizens and groups. Coach parties are welcome.
