52 TEXT
 "NH 7088 6706. Chapel (site of). NH 7091 6704. Chapel Well." (1) "This is said to be the site of a Roman Catholic, therefore presumably Pre-Reformation, chapel, about which nothing further is known. When the area around the chapel was trenched 'large unchiseled stones' were uncovered. These were assumed to be grave-stones. Unless this chapel pre-dates the former parish church St. Michael's (NH 76 NW 001), its presence, only three-quarters of a mile from that church, is not easily explained. The Chapel Well is a spring well." (2) "NH 709 671, Chapel (site of), Chapel Well." (3) "The former existence of a chapel at this site is well known locally, but whether this was a Pre-Reformation chapel or not could not be ascertained. The significant name 'Chapel-ton' applies to the cottage to the E of the site at NH 7094 6708. The published site falls on a flat area of uncultivated land, and contains several medium sized stones, black earth and numerous rabbit burrows. The 'Chapel Well' at NH 7091 6704 was filled in 'many years ago'."
