52 TEXT

"The district called Docharn (prob. Davoch of the cairns) contains some 'hundreds' of cairns, the majority of them small. (Three large ones specifically mentioned, separately recorded)."(1)
 "No trace of these cairns were found. The probable area is now covered by a dense plantation. It is probably that Mitchell is referring to stone clearance heaps."(OSFI:RL:2.11.1966)
