

Highland Dirk, 18 inches in length, the handle of wood,  $4\frac{1}{4}$  inches in length, brass mounted, and ornamented with interlaced carving, and a heart-shaped mounting of brass.

17. Flat Powder-Horn,  $10\frac{1}{2}$  inches in length, ornamented on one side with interlaced work, and on the other with a circle of foliaceous scroll-work, and a smaller circle with a geometrical hexafoil, the end of the horn mounted with pewter—found in the ruins of Lochindorb Castle.

Axe of claystone, polished,  $4\frac{1}{2}$  inches in length by  $2\frac{1}{4}$  inches across the face, the edges flattened—from Alva, Stirlingshire.

Sixteen Arrow-Heads of chert—from North America.

18. Polished Stone Axe of claystone,  $8\frac{3}{8}$  inches in length by  $3\frac{3}{8}$  inches across the cutting face—from the neighbourhood of Kippen, Stirlingshire.

Polished stone Axe of claystone,  $4\frac{1}{4}$  inches in length by  $1\frac{7}{8}$  inches across the cutting face—from the neighbourhood of Kippen, Stirlingshire.

Ornamented Stone Ball of granitic stone,  $2\frac{7}{8}$  inches in diameter, with six projecting discs—found at Mugdrum Island, Abernethy, Perthshire.

19. Small Whetstone of reddish quartzite,  $3\frac{1}{4}$  inches in length by  $\frac{3}{8}$  inch of a side, slightly tapering to both ends—found near Killin.

Polished Stone Axe of serpentine,  $2\frac{7}{8}$  inches in length by  $1\frac{3}{8}$  inches across the cutting face—from Aberdeenshire.

Two large Calabashes of vegetable rind, ornamented—from Africa.

20. Implement of basalt resembling a large spear-head,  $7\frac{1}{8}$  inches in length, triangular on the one face, rounded on the other, with a thick rounded tang—locality unknown, but supposed to be Shetland.

21. Socketed Axe of bronze,  $3\frac{7}{8}$  inches in length by  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches in width across the cutting face, the socket slightly oval, the exterior eight-sided and plain, with a loop on one side—found at Forfar, with the socketed knife described below.

Socketed Knife or Dagger of bronze,  $6\frac{7}{8}$  inches in length, with oval socket 1 inch by  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch, and 2 inches in depth, with a rivet-hole on either side, the rivet running lengthways of the oval of the socket about a quarter of an inch from the butt. The blade, which is 2 inches wide at the base, has a slight midrib, and the junction of the blade with the