52 TEXT
 "NM 8120 6140: Barracks (now Kilcamb Lodge Hotel): This building was at one time (18th Century) temporarily occupied by troops."(1) "Kilcamb Lodge Hotel, known as 'Barracks' in the 19th Century was used in 1746 as the Headquarters for a force of 100-200 militamen commanded by Col. John Campbell (Later 5th Duke of Argyll) who were occupied in disarming the surrounding areas and hunting for leaders of the Jacobite Rebellion. In 1752 a small garrison was established here to enforce the prohibition on the wearing of tartan and the carrying of weapons."(Letter to RCAHM: 15.5.1976, I Fisher). "NM 8120 6140, roofed building."(2)
